FIVE RUNAWAY BOYS FOUND.

They Spent a Week in the "Bumble-Loo" Lodging House, Williamsburg.

Five runaway Williamsburgh boys were found yesterday morning in the "Bumble-Loo" lodging house at 57 North Second street. They were Edward Wainscott of 181 North Third street, George Stephenson of 60 Division avenue, Thomas Purson of 87 Hobling street, and Rocco and Michael Mandolini, brothers who live at 259 North Eighth street. Wainscott disappeared a week ago. The others were away the next morning. They obtained food by begging and pawned stolen goods to pay for their lodgings.

Mr. Wainscott heard on Thursday night that his boy had been found and was sent to the police and street dock. She furnished the police with the information, and at midnight two policemen went into the "Bumble-Loo" lodging house and found the four boys sleeping side by side on a cot. They were taken to that station house and held on a charge of vagrancy. When they were arrested, Justice Gotting committed them to the care of the Children's Society until Tuesday.

HERE DIVIDING THEIR BOOTY.

Two Thieves Arrested in the Street with a Bag of Silverware.

Michael Battie of 100 Mulberry street and James Cooley of 14 Chamberlain street, who were engaged in Centre Street Court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny preferred by W. Brooks of 73 West street, A policeman saw the two men on Thursday afternoon at Cedar and Washington streets dividing the contents of a large money sack. When they noticed the officer they attempted to hide the sack behind them. In the bag were several sheets and pillows, a small carpet bearing the mark of the Murray Hill Hotel, a silver cake basket, and a silver syrup pitcher.

Batts called at the police station and identified the two as being with him when he took the spoon from the Murray Hill Hotel. He said that his flat had been robbed during the day, the thieves entering through the transom.

The two men, who are known as rascals, refused to say anything except that they had been too drunk to know what they were doing. Magistrate Cornell held them in $1,500 for trial.
